

QUILT SHOW ENTRY RULES

Port St Lucie Crazy Quilters

Quilting in Paradise

February 6-8, 2020

1. The quilt must be made by the person entering the quilt. It must have been finished no earlier than 2016. If you did not do your own quilting, the name of the quilter must be stated on the entry form. Members may enter 3 quilts in the show. You may not have more than one quilt judged in the same category. We will accept all three quilts as long as there is space available. Members may also enter one in each of the following categories: Guild and Group Challenge, Wearable Art, and Home Décor.
2. Non-Members may enter a quilt for a fee of $20.00 if space is available.
3. All entries must be clean and free of odors or pet hair. No wooden frames or stretcher bars are allowed. Entries must be constructed of fabric and quilted. No tied quilts will be accepted for judging.
4. You must complete a separate registration form for each quilt. If it is to be picked up by someone other than the entrant, the appropriate section must be completed on the registration form.
5. Each quilt will be assigned an entry number which you will receive prior to judging day. Write the number on two 4" squares of muslin with a permanent marker. Pin one on the back of your quilt in the lower left-hand corner. Pin the second one on the pillow case or wrapping. These numbers should stay on the quilt until after the quilts are picked up from the show.
6. Each entry should have a name label affixed to it. Cover this label with a blank piece of cloth to provide anonymity on judging day.

7. Each entry must be received in its own cloth casing, such as a pillowcase. This case must be permanently marked with owner's name, address, and phone number in LARGE READABLE LETTERS.
8. For display purposes quilts should be fitted with a 4" hanging sleeve on the back. If the quilt is smaller than 36" and you are okay with having it displayed using pins you may omit the sleeve.
9. Any quilt previously entered in a PSL Crazy Quilters Show will not be accepted unless it is requested for display only.
10. The Show Committee and judge reserve the right to accept, reject, or reclassify entries. All judged entries will receive written evaluations with their quilts when returned from the show.
11. The entrant agrees to abide by the rules and decisions of the PSL Crazy Quilters show committee and judge when they complete the registration form. Each quilt entry form must be accompanied by at 4x6 full view picture of the finished quilt and a close-up view for detail. Adhere the pictures to the appropriate places on page 2 of the entry form. The entrant acknowledges the PSL Crazy Quilters will take every precaution to safeguard quilts in their custody, but understand that they cannot be responsible for accidental damage or loss of entered quilts.
12. There is no entry fee for members of Port St Lucie Crazy Quilters. Non-Members will be charged a $20.00 fee. Quilts entered by PSLCQ Members will be considered for entry before Non-Members.
